Letter No.C.20 dated the 29th September 1911 from the Dist. Superintendent of Police, Mysore, to the Inspector-General of Police in Mysore.

"With reference to your D.O. No.170 dated 12-9-1911, I have the honour to report as follows regarding one Mr. K. Hanuma Doss alias Hanuma who has applied for permission to publish a Kannada monthly journal called "Madhura Vani".

The applicant is a Madhva Brahmin and a resident of Cheluvamba Agrahar in the Mysore City. His father is one Swamiraya Doss of Mysore and is employed as a Clerk under a contractor J.K.Nara-simhiah on ₹ 10/- a month.

The applicant is said to be adopted to one Bindu Bhatt of Sarade Village in the Haveri Taluka of the Dharwar District. The adoptive father is dead and the adoptive mother Bheemakka and the applicant are living with Swamiraya Doss in the latter's house.

The applicant has an elder brother K.Krishna Doss who is a student in Senior Intermediate Class in the Maharaja's College and an younger brother K. Rama Doss who is reading in III Form in the Dalavoy Anglo Vernacular School.

These boys live with their widowed father Swamiraya Doss.

The applicant has passed his 20th year and is in the 21st year of his age. He is unmarried. He is said to have read up to IV form in the Wesleyan Mission High School after passing the Kannada Lower Secondary examination from the Sivarampet Wesleyan Boy's School in 1903.

The

The applicant left School last year and since then is said to be writing some articles in Kannada.

I examined some of his productions and found them to be very poor specimens of ordinary literature. It does not moreover appear possible to expect anything better from a man of the applicant's education and experience. It can hardly be said that the applicant is as yet competent to instruct the public on moral, religious and social subjects and Kannada literature as he proposes to do.

As regards the applicant's character there is nothing adverse heard. However it seems too early to make an estimate of his character, as he is young and has not yet seen much of the world.

I have interviewed Mr. Hanuma Doss and have been informed by him that he gets about ₹ 400/- a year from the hands of his adoptive father in Hosritti village in the Haveri Taluk. It is ascertained that his father Swamiraya Doss' house in Cheluvamba Agrahar is worth about ₹ 1000/-"

Sir

With reference to your memo dated 23rd September 1911 and reminder of this date, I have the honor to report as follows regarding one Mr. K. Hanumadasa alias Hanuma who has applied for permission to publish a Kannada monthly journal called "Madhuravani."

The applicant is a Madhwa Brahmin and a resident of Chelwamba Agrahar in the Mysore city. His father is one Swaminaya Das of Mysore and is employed as a clerk under a Contractor J. K Narasimhaiya on Rs 15 a month.

The applicant is said to be adopted to one Bindubhatt of Sarade Village in the Haveri Taluka of the Dharwar District. The adoptive father is dead and the adoptive mother Bheemakka

GPB—1,50,000—20-6-11

Bhimakka and the applicant are living with Shamyraya Dasa in the latter's house.

The applicant has an elder brother K. Krishna Dasa who is a Student in Senior Intermediate class in the Maharajah's College and an younger brother K. Rama Dasa who is reading in III Form in the Dakery Anglo Vernacular School.

These boys live with their widowed father Swami Shamyraya Dasa.

The applicant has passed his 20th year and is in the 21st year of his age. He is unmarried. He is said to have read up to IV Form in the Wesleyan Mission High School after passing the Kannada Lower Secondary examination from the Livarampet Wesleyan Boys' School in 1903.

The applicant left School last year and since then is said to be writing some articles in Kannada. Specimens of his production, I enclose:—

(1) A copy of the journal called Sree Krishna Bhakti for August 1910 which contains an article beginning entitled "Mahadev Govind Ranade".

(2) A copy of "Vivekodaya" for April 11 which contains an article beginning on "How to talk" (ಹೇಗೆ ಮಾತನಾಡಬೇಕು?).

(3) Copies of the Mysore Star for September 4th and September 11th containing an article beginning on "Shamraya".

(4) A copy of "Adventures of Vicharachandra" now being written by one R Srinivasa Rao and the applicant.

These are merely specimens of ordinary literature which does not appear possible to expect anything better from a man of the applicant's education and experience. It can hardly be said that the applicant is as yet competent to instruct the public public on moral, religious and Social subjects and Kannada literature as he proposes to do.

As regards the applicant's character there is nothing adverse heard. However it seems too early to make an estimate of his character as he is young and has not yet seen much of the world.

I have interviewed Mr Hanumadasa and have been informed by him that he gets about Rs 400/- a year from the lands of his adoptive father in Hosritti village in the Haveri Taluk. It is ascertained that his father Swamiraya Dasa's house in Chelvamba Agrahara is worth about Rs 1000/-.

Your memo under reference together with its enclosures is resubmitted
